

Speakers

Professional development day for not-for-profit finance professionals

Sally Clifford, Matrix

Sally is the General Manager of Territory-based consulting firm Matrix on Board. She brings 20 year's experience working for and with non-profit organisations across northern and central Australia. She brings particular expertise and grounded practice in the areas of non-profit governance, board financial literacy, strategy development, evaluation and organisational capacity building.

Andrew Newsham, ANZ

Andrew is the Senior Relationships Manager at ANZ NT, with over sixteen years of experience in commercial banking across both South Australia and the Northern Territory. He specialises in the Not-for-profit sector, with a keen technical understanding of the Darwin economy and property.

Aaron Landorf, ANZ

Aaron is ANZ's Senior Transactional Banking Specialist across both SA and NT. He has over twenty years experience in banking and a specialisation in transactional banking. Aaron expresses a passionate interest in cyber security education and keeping clients informed on the latest scams.

Joy Costales, Nexia Australia

Joy is the Technical Standards Manager at Nexia Australia. With over ten years of experience, she has provided accounting and technical advice to a variety of entities, including not-for-profit organisations such as charities, schools, and churches, as well as Australian listed companies. In her current role, Joy assists in shaping Nexia Australia's responses to emerging developments in financial reporting and offers guidance on the application of both Australian and International Accounting Standards to clients and staff.

Noel Clifford, Nexia Edwards Marshall NT

Noel is a Partner within the Audit and Assurance division of the firm. He had over forty years experience in professional accounting with a variety of clients across all industries. With a special interest in Not-for-profits, Noel's breadth of knowledge and expertise ensures excellent outcomes for his clients.

Sarah McEachern, Nexia Edwards Marshall NT

Sarah is a Partner within the Business Consulting and Taxation divisions of the firm. Sarah has a particular flair for assessing her clients' business needs and providing recommendations that maximise opportunities for them.

Donella Dabao, Nexia Edwards Marshall NT

Donella is a Director in Nexia Edwards Marshall's Accounting and Business Consulting Services division. Her expertise lies in financial advisory and management reporting, internal control assessment and continuous process improvement.